

An illustration of a young boy with dark hair and wide eyes, looking startled and afraid. He is tucked under a blue blanket in a bed with a wooden headboard. The room is dimly lit with a blueish-purple hue. On the left, a nightstand holds a lamp with a blue shade and a round alarm clock. A shadow of a monster with long, clawed arms and a red, glowing face is cast onto the wall behind the bed. The monster's shadow is reaching towards the boy. The overall atmosphere is spooky and mysterious.
