TRESK! BUM! ŠUPS!

Groot sa musel uhýbať, lebo okolo Rocketa to lietalo len taký fukot!

Zakrátko bola loď Milano ešte zababranejšia než predtým!
